NEGRO TROUBLES

In North Carolina Continue to Grow More Serious.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 10.—Negroes not having complied with the demands of the business men at 7:50 this morning, the time fixed, five hundred armed white men marched to the office of the Daily Record, the negro newspaper, and destroyed all the material in the building, which took fire, it is said, by accident. Leaders of the whites say they did not intend to burn it. They sent for an engine and the flames were confined to the Record building. The building is a wreck and it is feared the negroes will attempt to retaliate tonight. The streets are now full of armed whites. Fully a thousand men will be on guard tonight. The mob at the Record office was composed of the best citizens of the city.

Editor Manly, his brother and his associates have fled and could not be found by the mob. The negroes fled before the mob, taking refuge in the houses. The mob discharged guns in the air, cheered and shouted, while the fire engines were saving the adjoining property. Today's action is the sequel of a refusal to suspend publication of the Record, demanded by the whites, because of editorial reflection on white women.

Five hundred negro laborers in Champion Compress became terrorized by the rumors that whites were burning the negro houses and rushed into the streets. They were finally quieted and dispersed to their homes. There was a collision between the whites and blacks in the First ward in which three white men and three negroes were killed. Large companies of armed whites have gone to the scene. Negroes are being disarmed on the streets. Civil authority is paraclyzed. A citizens' committee of twenty-five is trying to restrain the unruly whites. Armed men are coming in from surrounding towns on special trains. The military company will probably take command of affairs. A local detachment of United States naval reserves, with one pound gun, went to the scene of trouble with a military company and several hundred armed citizens. There was nothing to shoot at. The negroes have fled.

The total losses up to 2 p. m. are eight negroes killed and two wounded. Three white men have been wounded. A committee of twenty-five is trying to devise means of restoring order. Their plan is to appoint a sub-committee, with supreme authority. Reinforcements from Goldsobro turned back.

A CAMERA CLUB.

Such Is the Movement on Foot Among Our Amateur Photographers.

Portsmouth amateur photographers are again agitating the organization of a camera club. Edw. Lee Feyler and Will Lahmering are the prime movers in the matter, and it is proposed to issue a call on all the amateurs in the city to meet some evening and talk over plans of club organization. It is estimated there are over one hundred camera enthusiasts in the city and there is no reason why a club organization for the promotion of their art should not be eminently successful. Other cities smaller than Portsmouth and with fewer amateurs have well organized and working clubs.

The following telegarm was received by the Times late this afternoon:

Elyria, O., Nov. 10.—M. Weis fell from a bridge here. He will die. He had receipt in his pocket to pay for working at the polls at Portsmouth. DAILY REPORTER.

The Times began an investigation at once and succeeded in locating four persons by the name of M. Weis. They are all in the city. All efforts to find a missing M. Wise have proved futile.

Later.—Just before going to press the following telegram was received:

Weise is the name. He is sandy complexioned, of medium height and wore gray clothes: of middle age; had on a stiff hat; burnside whiskers.

A Railroad Change

A. D. Patterson, formerly landlord of the Hotel Safford took charge of the B. & O. yards here this morning. F. F. Geiger, the old yard master goes on the local freight as brakeman. FREIGHT WRECK

At Rarden Wednesday Noon—Passenger Trains Stopped.

Extra freight, west-bound, on the C. P. & V. jumped the track near Rarden at 12:30 yesterday. A coal car near the middle of the train got loose from the train and run along the ties for some distance, when it got cross-wise of the tracks and took two other cars down in the ditch with it. The track was torn up for about one hundred yards and all trains were delayed for several hours. The passenger train, due here at 8:55, arrived about midnight, after transferring at the scene of the wreck. To make matters still more pleasant for the railroad people, a tree fell across the telegraph wires and rendered them useless until far into the night, when it was removed.

A DOZEN

Majority Claimed by Republicans in Next Congress.

Senate Will Be Republican by 18 Majority—Figures Show 185 Republican and 163 Democrats.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

Cincinnati, Nov. 10.—A Times-Star Washington special says there is no longer any doubt as to the complexion of the next house of representatives. The Republicans will have a majority of at least twelve, and probably more. Figures today show 185 Republicans elected, 163 Democrats, 6 Populists and 3 Silver. These only count those surely elected. Republicans expect to secure one more from West Virginia, one in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, California and Nebraska. Chairman Babcock claims seven doubtful districts. The senate after March 3d will be Republican by eighteen majority, standing Republicans 54, Democrats 27, Populists 5, Silver 4.

J. L. PATTERSON, Editor and Manager.

Compared with the result in the presidential year the Democrats have made great gains in the reduction of the Republican majorities in all the states. This is gratifying, but we expected to do something far better and redeem states that voted largely for McKinley and regain control of the lower House of congress. In this we have been disappointed. New York is a surprise, and the tremendous majority figured up for Stone in Pennsylvania is a greater one. So in other states.

It is difficult to find an explanation of what must be accpeted as a strong vote of confidence in the administration. Free silver or free trade did not figure in the canvass save as a scarecrow. Of course the Southern question is dead. What caused the surprises of the election? We held it to be the continuance of the war spirit, and the growth of the expansion or imperial policy with the unthinking. On no other ground does it seem susceptible of explanation. The administration will so interpret it, and the scheme of Philippine annexation will be prosecuted with renewed vigor. It is within the power of the President to force things as to the Philippines, as he did in the case of Hawaii, and without the question having been considered as it should be, or directly voted on by the American people, compel the annexation of the Malay islands and their savage population. This in all probability will be the fruit of yesterday's election. A Democratic victory would have averted the great danger—a Republican victory welcomes it. The President, half converted to the policy of imperialism, will now go the whole figure, using the vast powers of his office for that purpose. It is a very grave danger, and aside from the subordinate question of partisan supremacy, is the practical meaning of the Republican victory.—Pittsburg Post.

After the Dingley bill became a law, with 33 per cent duty on raw wool replacing free wool, and an average of nearly 100 per cent on woolen manufactures replacing an average of 40 per cent under the Wilson tariff, great prosperity was predicted for woolen manufacturers and wool growers. Instead there is now a great depression in the woolen industry on the farm and in the factory. No attempt is made to deny the fact of depression. The Dry Goods Economist says that about one-half of the woolen machinery is now idle, and much of the remainder is working on reduced time. The Philadelphia Manufacturer, organ of the strongest and extremist protectionist club in the country, admits that such is about the situation, and that so far as there is any change at all it is for the worse. This trouble is not due to imports. Compare the record of the eight months ending August 31st with imports of woolens during the same period in three previous years:

Eight Months	Imports of Woolen Goods.
1898	$11,686,753
1897	37,714,479
1896	29,544,094
1895	42,679,135

This noteworthy shrinkage cannot be wholly explained by the anticipatory importations in 1897, prior to the enactment of the new tariff, for it will be seen that taking the last two years together importations aggregate only $49,400,000, while for the same time in 1896 and 1895 the total was $72,223,000.

The only explanation apparently at hand is that domestic consumption of woolen goods has declined. When we seek the reason of such decline it is to be found unquestionably in the continued low purchasing ability of the people and the advance in prices caused by the higher tariff. Now that the election is over, and a clear presentation can be made of the condition of the wool industry, it is well worth the careful study of that interest, especially the wool growers of Western Pennsylvania.

Resolutions.

Castle Hall, Ives Lodge, K. of P., No. 472, Scioto, O.

Again has the hand of Death visited our midst and taken from us one of our distinguished brothers. With bowed head and in profound reverence we accept this decree of an All-wise Providence; therefore be it

Resolved: That in the death of Conrad H. Reinoehl Ives Lodge No. 472 recognizes the loss of a brother who has given evidence of his love for and attachment to the order, and had he lived would have labored to promote its interest and strengthened its friendships. In his death our community has lost a good citizen, his father and mother a devoted son, his brothers and sisters a loving brother. As members of the Order of Knights of Pythias we place upon his tomb sprigs of myrtle, whose unfading beauty bespeaks the immortality of the soul. May he rest in peace.

Resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes; that a copy be furnished the family, and the city papers be requested to publish the same, and that the Castle hall be draped in mourning thirty days.

WARREN CALL.

S. S. Missionary Society.

A call has been issued to the pastors and Sunday school superintendents of the United Brethren churches throughout the jurisdiction of the Scioto county conference to meet and organize a missionary society. Meetings will be held quarterly, in December, March, June and September. This will be an excellent field for efficient missionary work, as well as affording an opportunity of bringing the people of the district together and learning more of each other. The children will gladly take hold of the matter, and the Sunday school of today is the church of tomorrow.

This query will be answered next Sunday at the United Brethren church by Rev. J. E. Comer, the popular young pastor of that congregation. Rev. Comer has taken this question for the subject of his sermon on that evening and no doubt will give an interesitng dicsourse, from a spiritual standpoint, as to why we give this enthusistic, patriotic welcome to the brave boys in blue, who risked life and health for the greatest Christian nation of the world.

"Ben Hur" Press Notices.

The graceful movements of the Gondoliers, the stately postures of the Naiads, the scarf dance of the priestesses, the tinkling of the tambourines in the hands of the Arab maids, the fairylike butterflies, the merry blackbirds, the Greek statuary, the three graces all introduced as incidental features, make the whole production one of the finest ever seen in Waltham.—Waltham, Mass., News.

"Ben Hur" is by far the most pretentious amateur entertainment ever attempted here and its scenic and spectacular accessories are all that the most critical play-goer could require, both as to beauty and variety. The oriental pictures represented in the bewildering abundance of scenery, the graceful dances by artless children, the stately drills by handsome maidens and various other features go to form an attraction that compels admiration and interest. —Detroit Evening Journal.

THE GLORY OF AUTUMN

As Viewed from Editor Wilson's Poetic Standpoint.

The autumn is in the full tide of its glory. The hillsides are in a blaze of splendor. Yesterday we took a ride out among the hill-tops, and looked down in the valleys, flushed with the tints of the rainbow and melting away in the mists of Indian summer. Neither the floral hues of spring nor the green banners of summer make so gorgeous a festival as the irridescent glow of autumn. Maybe the loveliness of these days touches one more tenderly for the grace of melancholy there is in it, since sorrow comes nearer the heart than joy or hope. It is the picture of all love when it thinks of the evanescence of beauty. One can see it fading now. The crimson leaves are beginning to change to russet brown, and there they go trickling through the air and covering the ground with sleeping music. The falling leaves are the fading rays of the evening of the year. Soon they will all be gone and the woods will be robed in night, waiting for another dawn.—Ironton Register.

"Ben-Hur."

Do not stay away from "Ben Hur" on account of the rain. Come and you will forget all about the weather in the enjoyment of this great spectacular pantomime.

The following is from the Springfield (O.) Republic-Times: "Ben Hur," the "Ben Hur" of General Lew Wallace's trenchant pen, as presented Tuesday evening at the Grand opera house under the auspices of the Woman's Guild of Christ Episcopal church, eclipsed in gorgeousness of setting, in magnificence of scenery and in imposing array of trained amateurs any like exhibition of the kind etver before attempted in this city. Nothing but words of pleased wonder at the dazzling splendor of the scenery and words of praise at the thoroughly artistic and masterly manner of its presentation by the cast, were heard from the cultured audience which filled every seat in the house. The affair in its ensemble was a revelation to the audience of the artistic abilities of an amateur production, and the intense interest aroused by the scene in the desert at the rise of the curtain, was sustained to the end—the brilliant and gorgeous closing allegory "Iris' Dream of the Nile," a scene of surpassing and dazzling brilliancy.

WELCOME WORDS

Pathetic Words for Those Members Who Have Died in Service of Their Country—A Beautiful Address.

Following is the complete text of the welcome address of Hon. Jas. W. Newman, delivered last night at the reception to Company H.

Fellow-citizens and Members of Company H:

We have assembled here this evening to do still further honor to our boys in blue. Your old neighbors have already given you an open-air reception; they have served you with an indoor banquet, and now they have come to extend you the "glad hand." The citizens of Portsmouth, without regard to race or nationality, without regard to religion or politics, tender to Co. H this beautiful banner as a patriotic token of their love and regard for each member, and of the pride they feel for the honorable conduct that has marked your soldierly career. Let me assure you that you have filled the full measure of our expectations.

It would be impossible, my soldier friends, for you to realize the anxious solicitude with which our people, every day and hour, have watched your movements in this country, and then across the waters to that little island you helped to capture and make free.

They watched you in your Ohio camp; they followed you in their thoughts to that historic camp in Tennessee, where you made your first serious struggle with hard tack and bacon, from which you fortunately emerged triumphant. They followed you across the country to the seaboard, and then with anxious hearts they waved you "farewell" across the seas to the scene of actual conflict. Not for one hour since you landed on the coast of Porto Rico until you once again stood upon the soil of America have they forgotten you or ceased to pray for your welfare and your safe return.

During all this time we have felt that the honor of Ohio, its reputation for valor and devotion to duty, could well be entrusted to the Fourth Ohio regiment, and that Scioto county could safely place her keeping in the brave hearts of the boys of Company H. No regiment, so far as I have been able to observe, has returned from active service in as fine physical and sanitary condition as the Fourth Ohio. Out of more than 1,100 men who returned in your ship but three were disabled by sickness. This speaks well for the care and discipline maintained by your officers and observed by yourselves.

We believed that you had thought well before you took upon yourselves the trying duties and imminent perils of the soldier.

Camps are not playgrounds and battle-fields are only made illustrious by carnage. A soldier—a true soldier—ought to fear nothing but God and dishonor.

There is no better fighting material in the world than the American soldier when organized and disciplined. He goes into battle with the idea that an honorable death is better than an inglorious life. He is not fighting for king or potentate. He does not bare his breast to the storm of battle for the glory of his sovereign as do the drafted troops of the monarchies. The American soldier feels that he is fighting for himself, for his own country, his own home, for free institutions. In victory the glory belongs to himself and his comrades and to the people. A well known American admiral once said that the strength of our navy was not measured so much by its ships or its guns, as by the men behind the guns. Their courage, their endurance, their intelligence, and their God-like inspirations to duty were unconquerable on land or sea. The matchless splendor of our victories at Manila and Santiago illustrate this supremacy.

And how strikingly it was proved by the gallant charge at San Juan last July, when a victory was won that only heroes could win. The Spanish troops were strongly fortified, concealed in trenches and blockhouses; they were using smokeless powder and firing guns that carried balls two thousand yards. The American troops were out in the open; they charged up those slopes, using common powder, which disclosed their presence at every shot, armed with guns that carried but one thousand yards—only one-half the distance that Spanish bullets flew. Yet the soldiers of the republic, unsupported by artillery, charged up that hill amid a storm of shot and shell and swept the disciplined veterans of Spain from the face of the earth and planted the stars and stripes on the bloody heights of San Juan. Exposure and hunger could not dampen the ardor of the boys in blue. American valor had won the day.

But your home-coming, my soldier friends, is not one of unalloyed pleasure. All who left us that April morning, a little more than six months ago, have not returned with you. There are vacancies in the ranks. Some are in hospitals far away, wrestling wearily with disease, and we can but pray that a kind Providence will restore them to health and to their families. Four of your comrades have passed to the Beyond. "On Fame's eternal camping ground their silent tents are spread." While they fell not 'mid the battle in deadly strife, yet their lives went out as bravely, as truly in their country's cause as if they had fallen at the very fore-front. He who dies in a good cause does not give up his life in vain.

Let me repeat that story that comes down to us from the wars of the great Napoleon, under whose magnetic leadership his veterans were so ambitious to perform deeds of daring, to win recognition and renown. In a desperate charge three of his bravest soldiers fell, one after the other, carrying the colors over the very breast-works of the enemy. Their courage was so conspicuous that it was ordered that their names should continue to be carried on the rolls, and thereafter when the regiment was assembled, and the roll was called, an officer was instructed, as the name of each of these heroes was heard, to respond, "Killed at the head of the column." And so, my young friends of Co. H, when through the coming years memories of your fallen comrades rise in your hearts—when the names of Dodge and Sparka and Patterson and Morrison are recalled you can reverently respond, "Died in the service of their country."

"How sleep the brave who sink to rest,
By all their country's wishes blest:
When Spring with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallowed mould:
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than fancy's feet have ever trod."

"By fairy hand their knell is rung,
By forms unseen their dirge is sung.
There Honor comes a pilgrim gray
To bless the turf that wraps their clay,
And freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell a weeping hermit there."

When your military service shall be reviewed it cannot be said that you were engaged in any decisive battles. But it was not your fault. You went after the enemy over the hills and through the jungles of Porto Rico, but he evidently wished to fight another day, and so, like warriors of other days, discreetly ran away.

The closing hour of conflict upon your part shows upon what a little thing sometimes rests the fate of men, of armies and of nations. If I am told aright on the day that news of peace was flying over the world by wires, and boats and fleetest steeds, the Fourth Ohio, away out in the hilly fastnesses of Porto Rico was facing the veterans of Spain. A part of our troops was advancing in front, another portion, including your regiment, had marched around the hill to make an attack in the rear. They had reached the desired spot. The enemy, unconscious of their presence, was in sight. Everything was in readiness for a combined attack by our troops in front and rear. The order was about to be given to open fire and charge, when an orderly—one of your own number—rode up with the intelligence that the protocol had been signed and hostilities must cease. The guns dropped; the war was virtually over. If that news had only come a little later I have no doubt you boys would have won a famous victory, and the Fourth Ohio would have recorded its heroic deeds high on the roll of fame. As that orderly dashed to the front with his news, if the horse had only stumbled, the fight would have opened. A charge equal, no doubt, to that of the Light Brigade would have followed, and some of you boys might have been heroes, and some might have been angels. But whether heroes or angels, we would prefer to receive you just as you are—without wings or without epaulets.

Much as you loved your country, my young friends, your experience and observations in the island among those people have, I am sure, taught you to love it still more. When you gazed upon that land, despoiled through centuries of ruthless despotism, and compared it with your own bright land, radiant with the blessings of liberty; when you saw the degredation of that people and contrasted them with the free, intelligent and happy people in your native land, what new delight you must have felt as you thought of the splendid glory of the American republic. And yet we must not judge those islanders too harshly. When we think what Cuba and Porto Rico are, and then think what, under a wise and just government they might have been, with their fertile soil and luxurious climate, we can but realize the difference between a cruel despotism and benign liberty. Under a wise, free and honest government let us hope that the people of these islands will be happy and prosperous in the enjoyment of a new and better dispensation.

The war just happily closed has proved to the world the strength and glory of our country. We should use it wisely in these days of entanglements and alliances. While education is the very corner-stone of our social fabric, courage — intrepid courage — is the foundation of victory—that courage which like an armed sentinel guards liberty and the right.

Men of Company H, maintain your organization after you are mustered out. Keep together and remain united as a band of brothers. Take this banner of beauty and glory presented to you by the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps. Preserve and protect it in times of peace as we know you would guard and defend it, even with your lives, upon the field of battle. It will prove a sacred memento! And when you gather beneath its bright folds we shall feel that faithful guardians of liberty and justice are there to uphold and defend it.

Welcome then, members of Co H—thrice welcome to our hearts and to your homes! The God of battles has indeed been with us during the passing year. Let us pray that the God of peace may send His angels with healing on their wings to bring comfort to the hearts of those who have been bereaved and give peace and prosperity to a happy land.

Your Heart and Blood

Strengthened, Renewed and Purified by

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure,

The Great Heart and Blood Tonic.

In spite of the fact that every day there are so many people suddenly taken away by that dread malady, heart disease, the general symptoms are often not recognized. Many people have affected and weak hearts who are not aware of it. Weak hearts are as common as weak eyes, and much more common than weak lungs. If you are short of breath; if your heart flutters or palpitates; if you have pain in left side or chest; if your pulse is irregular, or you have oppressed feeling in the chest, choking sensation, weak or hungry spells, smothering or sinking spells, difficult or asthmatic breathing, swelling of the feet or ankles, remember, Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure was especially prepared for these troubles and will certainly give you relief. It is a heart and blood tonic which tones up the heart, purifies the blood and gives it new life and color.

Read the following letter from Mr. James Cunningham, of Lenox, Mass.:

"I am very thankful for the great benefit I have received from Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I suffered for thirteen years from heart troubles of various kinds, was short of breath, and at nearly every breath a sharp pain would pass through my left breast. I had to sit up in bed night after night, fearing to lie down lest I should smother. My stomach began to trouble me; gas would form and would cause a great deal of uneasiness. My appetite failed me and I grew pale and thin. While I was in that serious condition I began taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it did for me what physicians with all their skill failed to do. It stimulated my appeitte, assisted my digestion and filled my arteries with the rich, red blood of health. It corrected my heart action, drove the pain away and finally restored me to health. I am now enjoying better health than I had before for many years. When people ask what makes me look so strong and well I always reply "it was Dr. Miles Heart Cure" did it.

"I was terribly afflicted with heart disease and had spent so much money for physicians and medicines that I was completely discouraged. About that time I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and decided to try once more. The very day I purchased it and after it had been brought into the house my physician called. He made a careful examination and then advised me that I could live but a short time. When he had gone I sent for the bottle of Heart Cure, took a dose and retired. In the morning I felt better than I had in some time, which encouraged me so much that I continued using it and in a few weeks was able to return to my business."

JOHN W. SIMCOE,
Wellsburg, N. Y.

"Having been relieved of a slight heart trouble with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, I sent a bottle to a friend who was so bad that he could not lie down. It helped him as it helped me. He continued its use, and now he can do a good day's work, and is a stout, healthy man. He says Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved his life, and I believe it did."

J. S. MULBERRY, Carrollton, Ill.

SOCIAL NEWS.

Magnificent Reception Given Company H.

Members of Gibbons Literary Club Spend a Social Evening—Various Society Meetings and Notes.

The first performance of the "Ben Hur Spectacular Pantomime" — at the Grand tonight—promises to be a brilliant affair, both as to the audience and also to the many representatives of our best "home talent," who will stage this most attractive and artistic entertainment. Everybody invited.

At half-past seven last evening, after the boys of Co. H had been banquetted at Seel's hall, they marched in a body to Dice's new building, where they were most cordially received by the various reception committees and the public in general and enthusiastically greeted with music from the River City orchestra, which music was continued from time to time throughout the entire evening, much to the pleasure of all present.

Under the management of Messrs. Robert Mackey, Robert Lodwick and Oscar Herms, every artistic effect that loving hands could design with red, white and blue bunting, flags, both old and new, evergreens of all kinds and autumn leaves of various tints, made of Dice's immense hall a very attractive place in which to hold this large reception, to which the entire public was invited and came, too, in spite of the inclement weather, judging by the hundreds of people who poured into the hall from time to time. As many as the hall would hold remained to hear the apt speech Mr. James Newman had the honor to make to Co. H, and which ended with the formal presentation of the large flag given by the Women's Relief Corps to the boys in blue on the day of their departure for war.

Upon receiving the flag from the hands of Mr. Newman, Lieut. Smith was called upon by many voices for a speech, but refused, saying he could fight better than he could make speeches, and instead he ordered three cheers for the ladies of the Relief Corps, which were heartily given by the soldiers and highly appreciated by the ladies.

Not least among the attractions of last night's reception was the presence of the Porto Rican boys belonging to Mr. H. Wills and Mr. Chas. Wilhelm. Everyone wanted to see them, and some of the ladies actually stroked the curly black hair of the little boy belonging to Mr. Wills, possibly with a sympathetic, motherly touch, remembering the fact that the little fellow is motherless (as well as fatherless) and also a shy little stranger in a strangeland, who acted as if he felt a little odd in his modern suit of American clothes—much more of them than he is in the habit of wearing in his warm native land.

Mr. Ralph Calvert and his Porto Rican body guard—Jose Pagan by name—were not present, as Ralph could not withstand the temptation to go on a hunting expedition, now that the quail law has expired.

After Mr. Newman's speech, which will be found in another column of this paper, the social pleasures of the evening were resumed and the heroes of Porto Rico were certainly made to feel that they had covered themselves with glory and were very "welcome home."

About ninety members of the Gibbons Literary and social society met at St. Mary's hall last evening and played about twenty games of euchre. The highest score was won by Mrs. John Snyder and she was presented with a handsome bud vase. Mr. Jas. Fitzgerald won the second prize, a red satin neck tie. The next meeting of this society will be devoted to literature, music and cards and will occur on Thanksgiving night at St Mary's hall.

Do not forget to plan your affairs so that you can take supper at the Free Kindergarten rooms on Jefferson street between Front and Second next Tuesday evening Nov. 15th. Supper 15 cents. Benefit of the Philanthropic Kindergarten.

The Union Magazine club held its annual business meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. L. Gates. This club was organized in 1883 at the home of Miss Alice Duduit, who is now the only remaining charter member of the club, which originally numbered ten.

Miss Ellanor Reitz will entertain the Cecilia choir of St. Mary's church at her home on West Front street this evening with cards and a musical program.

The banquet given by the citizens of Portsmouth last evening was an enjoyable affair. Company H, in whose honor the banquet was given, assembled at their armory at five o'clock and marched to Seel's hall, where they were met by a dozen or more young ladies, whose bright smiles were a cheering welcome. We say "young" ladies, for on this happy occasion all the ladies were young, notwithstanding some had silvered heads.

As the boys in blue entered the dining hall each uttered an exclamation of surprise at the scene of dazzling beauty. There were two tables the entire length of the room, connected by another at the south end, forming a hollow square. These were brilliantly lighted in national colors and decorated with flowers and potted plants. The room was a mass of bunting, flags and autumn leaves, placed by the hands of ladies, who are indeed artists as decorators.

As the boys filed around the tables and were seated, a feeling of sadness for a moment could be seen reflected upon the countenances of all present. Four chairs were reserved, thus reminding them that four of their number were missing, having answered the last roll-call and entered that victorious army in the great beyond. This sadness lingered but a moment, however, being replaced by the comforting feeling that these four were now enrolled in that army of angels, in a world where wars are unknown.

The banquet was an elaborate affair and none could have enjoyed it more than the boys, who for many months had been unaccustomed to such delicacies. It was served by Mr. Seel, under the direction of the banquet and reception committee from the ex-members of Co. H—Harry W. Miller, E. N. Alger and Ed. A. Johnson, who were ably assisted by a committee of three ladies chosen from the Army and Navy League, the W. R. C. and the D. A. R., by the members of these organizations. These were Mrs. Geo. O. Newman, Mrs. P. A. McKeown and Mrs. J. G. Reed of the League; Mrs. F. L. Johnson, Miss Emma Bell and Mrs. James Ricker from the W. R. C., and Mrs. Oscar W. Newman, Mrs. Harsha and Miss Julia Kinney of the D. A. R. It was found necessary at a late hour to secure the service of several assistants as Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Harsha and Miss Kinney could not be present, and more "waiters" were needed. The following young ladies, who were chosen as assistants, rendered much help towards making the service so nearly perfect as it was: Misses Kate J. Newman, Bertha Reed, Ada Johnson, Mae Ricker, Bess Lewis, Grace Cotton and Edith Doty.

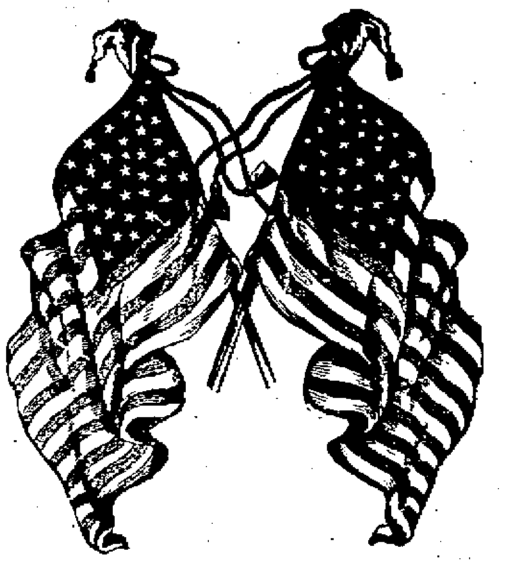

As a souvenir, at each place was found a piece of red white and blue ribbon, having the words "Co. H. 4th O. V. I. Porto Rico," and surmounted by a badge—an eagle and the two flags so well known to all.

Altogether the banquet was a great success and was highly appreciated by every one of the seventy-five "soldier boys" who were the honored guests at this feast.

A LITTLE TALK

on good clothes. We don't pretend to make clothes better than it's possible for any other tailor to make them. That's absurd. We do claim, however, that the SUITS we make to order for $20, $25, $28 & $30

Are superior to any made in this city at the same prices. We depend upon doing a large business at a little profit rather than a small business at large profits. Of course we do not take your money unless the fit and workmanship is absolutely correct and you are perfectly satisfied. That is the line upon which we work. Give us a trial and be convinced of our reliability.

Attempted Burglary on Chillicothe Street Last Night.

Burglars made a successful entrance to Connolley's dry goods store, on Chillicothe street, last night. They were unsuccessful, however, in their efforts at robbery and it is believed went away empty-handed. It was along about eight o'clock in the evening when Simon Kotovsky, who keeps a dry goods and notion store at 413 Chillicothe street, three doors south of Connolley's, heard some one making a noise upstairs over his place of business. Mr. Kotovsky rooms over his place of business and at first thought his room-mate, Morris Tiger, was making the noise. A few minutes later Morris came in from the street. Kotovsky then thought of burglars. He did not like the idea of running in on them in the dark. Going to the back door of the store he heard somebody running over the tin roof on Connolley's store. He went out looking for a policeman and met Geo. Worley, who clerks in the Connolley store, standing in the door. Worley had not been in the store. Night Watchman Williams made a search for the burglars, but could not find them. The cash register drawer in the store had been pulled out, and, looking closely, tracks made by a man's wet feet were discovered leading up-stairs. Entrance had been gained to the building through a window which opens out on the low roof in the rear of the building. A large stone was found on the roof near the window. No goods in the store were disturbed, with the exception of a box of shoes, which had been pulled out and rummaged over. Nothing was taken away. The thieves were unsuccessful in their efforts to gain an entrance to Kotovsky's place.

Marshal Schmitt is investigating the case and chances are that some arrests will be made shortly.

VEILED IN DOUBT.

Probable Political Complexion of the Lower House.

BOTH SIDES CLAIMING IT,

Producing Convincing Figures In Substantiation Thereof.

OFFICIAL COUNT IS NECESSARY

In Order to Definitely Determine Election Results In Close Congressional Districts, of Which There Is a Goodly Number—Nebraska Republicans Losing Ground and the State Is Now In Dispute—Returns From Tuesday's Battle of the Ballots.

Washington, Nov. 10.—"The house of representatives of the Fifty-sixth congress will be Republican without doubt," said Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee.

In summing up the situation he said: "There can be no longer any reasonable argument over the political complexion of the next house of representatives. It will be Republican beyond the shadow of a doubt. Our advices show the certain election of 185 Republicans, six more than enough to give us control. These are straight Republicans and our majority will be over the combined opposition. Our information induces us to place nine districts in doubt. These are the Seventh in California, the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth in Nebraska; the Seventeenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-sixth in Pennsylvania and the Twelfth in Texas. We are reasonably certain to get some of these. Without them, however, we have a clear majority and are resting perfectly easy."

Claim of the Democrats.

At the headquarters of the Democratic congressional committee, confidence is expressed that the Democrats will control the next house of representatives. Secretary Kerr will not concede many of the claims made by Chairman Babcock of the Republican committee, and says that in a large number of districts it will require the official count to determine definitely the result.

Said Secretary Kerr: "It seems certain that we have elected 183 members of the next house, the Republicans 163, and that 11 districts are in doubt. In New York we will have 21 members; in Pennsylvania nine, and perhaps ten; in Kansas four at least, and perhaps five; in Nebraska four; in North Carolina nine, and in California two or three. Information is slow coming in because the count in so many districts is very close. Our figures are based upon definite returns, and I am satisfied that they are entirely accurate."

West Virginia In Dispute.

Wheeling, Nov. 10.—The Republicans have elected two congressmen in West Virginia, sure, Dovener in the First (Wheeling) by 1,800 majority, and Freer in the Fourth by 1,000 majority. Both parties claim the Second and Third. Chairman Dawson of the Republican state committee claims the election of seven Republicans and six Democrats to the state senate, and 40 Republicans and 31 Democrats to the house of delegates. With the holdover senators this will give the Republicans a majority of 18 on joint ballot and insure the election of a United States senator as a successor to Faulkner (Dem.). Chairman Ohley of the Democratic committee claims the legislature on joint ballot.

Ohio Districts In Doubt.

Columbus, O., Nov. 10.—The only continued interest in Ohio election returns are those of the Third and Seventh congressional districts. The Republicans are claiming the Third as well as the Seventh, and the Democrats the Seventh as well as the Third. It is believed that the Republicans elect Weaver in the Seventh by 71 plurality, and the Democrats re-elect Brenner in the Third by 87, which leaves the Ohio list in congress 15 Republicans and six Democrats.

Indiana Congressmen.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—Late advices indicate the following congressional results in Indiana: First district, J. A. Hemenway (Rep.); Second, Robert W. Miers (Dem.); Third, W. T. Senor (Dem.); Fourth, F. M. Griffith (Dem.); Fifth, in doubt; Sixth, James A. Watson (Rep.); Seventh, Jesse Overstreet (Rep.); Eighth, George W. Cromer (Rep.); Ninth, C. B. Landis (Rep.); Tenth, F. D. Crumpacker (Rep.); Eleventh, George W. Steele (Rep.); Twelfth, Dr. C. B. Stevens (Rep.); Thirteenth, A. L. Brick (Rep.).

Late Report.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Reports to a press agency from 336 of the 357 congressional districts show that the Republicans have elected 179, the Democrats 150 and the Populists and fusionists six. There are still 21 doubtful districts, in several of which the official count will be necessary to determine the result. Of these 21 districts called doubtful, ten now have Republican, nine Democrat and two fusion representatives.

Administration Pleased.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The election formed the theme that almost exclusively occupied the attention of the cabinet at a special session. The feeling expressed at the meeting, summed up, was that the election results showed a hearty indorsement of the administration, and that in the main the Republican losses in some of the cities were attributed to the development of local feeling following the tidal wave of 1896 in districts which then elected Republicans on very large majorities.

Roosevelt's Plurality.

New York, Nov. 10.—The latest figures obtainable show that Roosevelt's plurality in the state is not far from 20,000. Only 10 counties in the state gave Van Wyck pluralities, and they were all localities swayed by cities, as New York, Kings, Queens and Erie. The falling off in Roosevelt's plurality as compared with Black's in 1896 is due to a decrease in the Republican vote up the state of 61,000 and in Greater New York of 62,000.

Senator Hanna Satisfied.

Cleveland, Nov. 10.—Concerning the result of the election, Senator M. A. Hanna said: "The result in the state is an excellent indorsement for the administration, while the result in New York is another indorsement for the administration of national affairs. The American people are satisfied with the conduct of the war and its successful outcome and they showed it at the polls on Tuesday."

Democrats Made Gains.

New York, Nov. 10.—The result on congressman in this state seems to have surprised even the Democrats themselves. Nineteen of their candidates were elected, the Republicans getting but 15. In the present house the New York delegation stands 27 Republicans to 6 Democrats. In the Greater New York all the Democratic candidates were elected.

Mixed Results.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Less than half of the vote of California has been counted. Gage (Rep.), for governor, will have 20,000 in excess of Maguire. It is reasonably sure also that the Republicans have carried the rest of the state ticket with the exception perhaps of secretary of state and two judges of the supreme court.

Nebraska In Doubt.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 10.—Returns by counties, which come with provoking slowness, indicates a scaling off of Republican gains, making the state ticket in doubt and so close that official count may be required. The legislature is probably Republican on joint ballot, but Senator Allen will not concede it.

Big Republican Slump.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Complete and partial returns from 84 out of 96 counties gave McMillan (Dem.) an estimated majority of 38,000 for governor. The decrease in the Republican vote is so phenomenal that an accurate estimate of the total vote in the state is impossible.

Oklahoma's Delegate.

Guthrie, O. T., Nov. 10.—Dennis T. Flynn (Rep.) is elected delegate to congress by probably 6,000 plurality. Both branches of the territorial legislature are safely Republican and the Republicans claim to have elected their local tickets in a majority of the counties.

Wyoming Republican.

Cheyenne, Wy., Nov. 10.—There appears to be no reason to change the estimates of the Republican state chairman, except that the Republican majority in the state will increase. This is indicated by surprising returns from new precincts.

Kentucky District In Doubt.

Louisville, Nov. 10.—The Ninth Kentucky district congressional race is so close that both Williams (Dem.) and Pugh (Rep.) are claiming it, the former by 180 and the latter by 100. The official count will be necessary to settle the election.

Fusion Won.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 10.—Only 47 precincts in the state, embracing one-eighth of the vote, have reported. The fusion ticket is all elected by pluralities ranging from 5,000 to 8,000. The legislature will be controlled by the fusionists.

Republicans Lost.

St. Paul, Nov. 10.—John Lind, Silver Republican, with Democratic and Populist indorsement, will have not less than 10,000 plurality in the state over Eustis (Rep.), but Lind is the only fusion candidate to win.

A Clean Sweep.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10.—The entire Democratic ticket in this county was elected with the exception of about half of the representatives to the legislature, justices of the peace and constables.

All Republican.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 10.—Almost complete returns from the state give Philipps (Rep.), for governor, a majority of 1,200. The legislature will have a Republican majority.

Minnesota's Solid Delegation.

Minneapolis, Nov. 10. — It is now practically certain that Page Morris (Rep.) is re-elected in the Sixth Minnesota, making a solid Republican delegation from this state.

Pennsylvania's Delegation.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—The delegation from Pennsylvania to the next congress will comprise 21 Republicans and nine Democrats, a Democratic gain of six.

Frisco's New Mayor.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—James D. Phelan (Dem.) has been re-elected mayor of San Francisco after a contest of extraordinary keenness.

Result In New Jersey.

Trenton, Nov. 10.—The New Jersey returns, with a few districts missing, show a plurality for Voorhees (Rep.) of 5,002.

Fusion Defeated.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 10. — Returns from the state of Washington are yet incomplete, but enough are at hand to make it certain that the Republicans have overcome the fusion majority of 12,000 two years ago, elected both congressmen and two supreme court justices by a majority of at least 3,000. The legislature which will elect a United States senator will be Republican on joint ballot by at least 40 out of a membership of 112.

Silver In Nevada.

Carson, Nev., Nov. 10.—The vote for governor is very close, but Sadler (Silver) claims his re-election by 800 majority over McMillen (Rep.). Congressman Newlands (Silver Dem.) is re-elected by 3,000 majority over Wren (Pop.). The balance of the state ticket is conceded to the silver party with the exception of suprintendent of public instruction.

Pingree's Seventy Thousand.

Detroit, Nov. 10.—According to complete returns, Governor Pingree's plurality will reach 70,000.

Killings In Texas.

Dallas, Nov. 10.—Election day was a bloody one in Texas. At Hubbard, Stephens county, Rosore McCarthy, Joseph Ramby and Jefferson Squires were killed, and J. F. McCarthy and Riley Squires probably mortally wounded in an election quarrel. At Steuber, in Hopkins county, R. E. Sutton and George Young were killed. At Aubrey, Denton county, Deputy Sheriff B. Taylor was shot through the neck by Lee Webb and dangerously wounded. At Sheffield, in Trinity county, J. W. Ashfield was killed and his father probably fatally wounded by persons whose names have not been learned.

SPAIN IS DOOMED

Her Rule Is About at an End In the Philippines.

UNCLE SAM WON'T RECEDE

From His Original Position Regarding Their Disposition.

REPLY TO THE SPANISH CLAIMS.

American Occupation of Manilla Is a Military One, Justifying the Collection of Revenue, the Administering of Government and the Exercising of All the Functions of Possession—Text of Peace Commission's Answer at the Last Session of the Paris Conference.

Paris, Nov. 10.—The Americans presented to the Spanish peace commissioners at a short session the answer of the United States to the latest claims submitted by the Spanish government at Friday's conference.

The document in which the answer of the Americans was set forth consisted of nearly 50 sheets of typewritten matter. It was a refutation of the Spanish allegation that because the words "possession," "ownership" or "cession" do not occur in the protocol clause touching upon the Philippine islands the peace commissions have no right to discuss them here, and that even if they did so it must be in the light of the alleged fact of an exterior agreement that Spain's sovereignty should not be impaired.

Uncle Sam also answered Spain's claim for the restitution to her of public money and customs collections taken by United States officials since the capitulation of Manilla, and made reply to Spain's claim for an indemnity on account of the alleged imprisonment by United States authorities of Spanish troops at Manilla, and for their subsequent restraint from being of service to Spain in the suppression of the insurrection and the preservation of property.

There was justification, the American peace commission held, under the terms of the protocol for the discussion of the future of the Philippine islands, and they also claimed that the occupation of Manilla is a military occupation which justifies the United States in collecting the revenues, administering the government and exercising all the functions of possession.

The session was a brief one because Senor Montero Rios and Judge Day concurred in the service of the American rejoinder upon the Spanish commissioners without a formal reading of the paper, which would occupy many columns in an ordinary newspaper, and an adjournment was taken until Saturday.

It is quite safe to say that the Americans have made no new propositions regarding the possession of the Philippines, but confined themselves to a discussion of the proposals and assertions made by Spain at the previous meeting.

Spain Will Fight.

Paris, Nov. 10.—The Gaulois says: "It is certain that the Spanish peace commission will maintain the contention that all the clauses of the protocol must be faithfully observed by the Americans, as they have been by the Spaniards, regarding Cuba and Porto Rico. The Spanish commission holds that no discussion on the Philippines can be tolerated and that the sovereignty of Spain over those islands will be maintained."

Editors Jailed.

Havana, Nov. 10.—Carlos Carrio and Manuel Pola, owners and editors of El Noticio Universal, an evening paper, were arrested and lodged in Cabanas fortress for publishing an article offensive to the United States, which was printed in spite of the fact that it had been red-penciled by the censor. The paper has been supended.

Presents For the Soldier Boys.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The postoffice department announced that the transport steamer St. Paul will sail from San Francisco direct for Manilla on Nov. 17, carrying the mails and also Christmas presents for our soldiers and sailors.

For the Antilles.

New York, Nov. 10.—The transport Manitoba started for Savannah, where she will take on board the Eighth cavalry, to be sent to Nuevitas. The cavalry will form a part of the garrison to police the province of Puerto Principe.

Off to Porto Rico.

Savannah, Nov. 10.—The United States transport Michigan sailed with six troops of the Fifth United States cavalry, under command of Colonel C. C. Carr, for Ponce, Porto Rico. She carried about 600 horses and 585 men.

Honorably Discharged.

Washington, Nov. 10.—By direction of the president Evan Miles has been honorably discharged as brigadier general of the volunteers and ordered to return to the command of the First infantry, of which he is colonel.

In Search of Maria Teresa.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 10.—The United States repair ship Vulcan went to sea in search of the lost Spanish cruiser Marie Teresa, which is believed to be ashore somewhere in the vicinity of Cat island.

Occupation of Cuba.

Washington, Nov. 10—The president, as well as some of the cabinet, are in receipt of private dispatches bearing on the Cuban situation. It is believed that the Spaniards will be informed through our commissioners at Havana that the evacuation of the island is not proceeding with the dispatch that the United States has a right to expect. On the other hand, it is said that yellow fever exists in Havana and that it would not be prudent to send troops at this time to occupy the city, even if the Spaniards were ready to evacuate it. There is no doubt, however, that the United States will take formal possession of the Cuban government on Jan. 1.

CRUISER DISABLED.

Buffalo, Bound For Manilla, Forced to Return to Port.

Washington, Nov. 10.—With her machinery broken down, the cruiser Buffalo, which sailed Saturday for Manilla to join Dewey's fleet, was forced to return to Newport, R. I.

Captain Hemphill, commanding the ship, reported by telegram that he had been unable to proceed further on his course and had been obliged to seek a shore station to repair. He asked for an investigation to fix the responsibility for the breakdown, and Secretary Long responded immediately by appointing Commander John McGowan, superintendent of the training station; Commander C. H. Stockton, president of the war college, and Chief Engineer R. S. Griffin of the Mayflower a court of inquiry, with Lieutenant W. I. Chambers as judge advocate. The court will meet Friday at Newport.

Ohio Soldier Stabbed.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Private Arthur Parker, company M, Second Ohio, lies in the division hospital with three bad knife wounds. He quarreled with an unknown civilian over an inmate of a house of ill repute, when suddenly his opponent drew a long knife and stabbed him three times, once in the back, once across the abdomen, almost disemboweling him, and once directly over the heart. Parker has a wife and family in Paulding. The civilian escaped.

Jack Tars Desert.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 10.—The cruiser Buffalo, Commander J. N. Hemphill, which left New York a few days ago for Manilla, put in here during the night to await orders. She had on board about 750 men for the ships of Admiral Dewey's fleet, but a considerable number deserted before the cruiser left New York. It is not known yet whether the Buffalo will proceed to the Pacific by way of the Suez canal or around Cape Horn.

With Dead Soldiers.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The war department has received the following from General Wood at Santiago: "Transport Berlin sailed with the following remains: Lieutenant John A. Curney, Twenty-fourth United States infantry; Privates Eugene A. Hussey, company A; Herman W. Goetz, company F; Ernst W. Beltzell, company G; James Edgar, company I; First Illinois volunteer infantry."

Recovered the Body.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 10.—Word was received here that after a hard day's search, the body of General Vera Del Rey had been discovered near El Caney, in spite of the efforts of the Cubans to prevent its discovery. A procession escorting the body commenced the journey towards Santiago under escort of the Fifth United States infantry and a band of music.

Lottie's Rash Act.

London, Nov. 10.—Lottie Collins, the music hall singer, attempted to commit suicide by opening veins in her throat and wrist with a penknife. She was taken to a hospital, where it was found that her wounds were not serious, and she was removed to her home.

Won Handily.

Boston, Nov. 10.—The total vote for governor was: Wolcott (Rep.), 190,246; Bruce (Dem.), 106,898; Republican majority, 83,348.

INCURABLE DISEASES

Simple catarrh in the head is called incurable. Consumption is catarrh of the lungs, and its victim is, no doubt, past help in the more advanced stages; but great numbers of people die of consumption needlessly. It is certain that every phase of catarrh, including many cases of consumption, are cured by the right treatment. Pe-ru-na, Dr. Hartman's great prescription, attacks catarrhal diseases scientifically and cures them. Dr. Hartman explains it fully in his books which are mailed on application. Here is a letter from Mrs. Harmening, Mazo Manie, Wis., who is one of many cured of consumption by Pe-ru-na. She says:

Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

DEAR SIRS:—"I cannot praise your remedy too highly. Last winter I had la grippe and hemorrhage of the lungs followed. All the doctors around here told me I had to die of consumption. Then I thought I would ask Dr. Hartman for advice, which I did. He prescribed Pe-ru-na for me, and I took it according to his directions and was cured. I advise everybody that is troubled with lung disease to take Dr. Hartman's treatment. I am sure they will not regret it if they do. I am now enjoying good health, and can thank Pe-ru-na for it."

Four Negroes Lynched With Neatness and Dispatch.

TOO HANDY WITH THEIR GUNS.

Culmination of the Fierce Race Riots In a Sequestered Section of South Carolina—Armed and Determined Whites on the Lookout For Turbulent Blacks, and More Trouble Is Feared.

Greenwood, S. C., Nov. 10.—Armed and determined men are now on duty at Phoenix, the theater of the race riots, and as a result, a feeling of greater security is manifest. It has just been learned that summary justice was meted out to a quartet of murderous blacks in the woods near that place.

Most positive evidence was secured that they were implicated in the shooting of the white men. About 100 white men participated in the lynching and there was no attempt at disguise or concealment.

Quiet prevails in this vicinity, though more trouble is expected in the Phoenix section. The efforts that have been made to prevent bloodshed have so far been of no avail. Public sentiment here seems to indorse the lynching.

After a Negro Editor.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 10.—There was a conference between the committee and a number of the most influential negroes of the city as to whether or not Editor Manly would comply with the requirements of the resolutions. If he does not, white men propose to go in full force and destroy the newspaper plant and forcibly expel the editor. There is intense excitement and many fear that negroes will attempt to protect Manly. If they do the worst can be expected.

Windowglass Cutters' Scale.

Syracuse, Nov. 10. — An agreement was reached at a conference in this city between the wage committees representing the Windowglass Cutters' League of North America and the windowglass manufacturers for the northern district. A wage scale was adopted giving the laborers an advance of between 3 and 4 per cent.

In the Toils.

London, Nov. 10.—Claud Vautin, the metallurgist and inventor, known on the Pacific coast, where he has lectured on mining subjects and who was reported to have left London recently after a financial coup by which he secured £20,000 ($100,000) in Bank of England notes and American railroad securities, was arrested in Florence.

GOLD DUST
THE BEST WASHING POWDER

Harry Anderson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is ten years old. This is a picture of him and his dog. Harry has suffered much from what they call a stye on his eyelids. Every now and then—just continually—sometimes several at a time, there would be some incipient ones and some real bad ones. His father used to say that Harry's bad health was all in his eye. This was funny but not very comforting. It was a lady friend of his mother who induced Harry to use Ripans Tabules. That was before the Chocolate Coated Tabules were to be had at the drug stores, and Harry would not swallow the common sort because they were so bitter. So the lady crushed half a Tabule and put it on a half spoonful of sugar, then added more sugar to fill up the spoon. In this shape Harry would take the Tabule and seemed to rather like it. He took half a Tabule once a day—after supper—and in three weeks his eyes were well and he has not had a stye since. You'd be surprised to see what an improvement there has been in Harry's appearance.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

Final Summons Came at 12:30 Wednesday Night—His Father at His Bedside—Met Death Bravely.

Another roll has been called and another name has been written there. Forest Briggs is dead. He gave up life's struggles in the Fort Hamilton hospital, in Brooklyn, N. Y., at 12:30 last night.

The sad message flashed across the wires to T. M. Lynn this morning at 8:30, with instructions to break the news gently to the anxious mother.

Encouraging messages have been received daily from his father at his bedside, and the loving mother had builded fond hopes on her only boy's recovery. A gloom has been cast over the city—not only because he was a soldier boy and freely gave his life for his country, but because he was beloved by all. The boys of Company H do not tire in telling of his noble qualities.

Forest was twenty-six years of age and was a young man of splendid habits. He was a member of the Sixth Street M. E. church and attended faithfully its serivces. He had a quiet and kind disposition and was much attached to his friends. He was the oldest of three children. Two sisters, Cora and Letha, remain to comfort the father and mother in their hour of affliction. He was a graduate of the River City Commercial college, and soon after leaving school he entered the N. & W. freight office as clerk, which position he held for some time. He has been a member of Co. H since 1893. He served with them through the Logan county riots and has always performed his duty faithfully and well. So well did he perform his soldier duties that he was appointed first sergeant of the company, and after they were mustered into the United States service as the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry he was recognized by the regimental officers as the best first sergeant in the regiment.

The first intimation his family had of his serious condition was a telegram from Colonel Coit, immediately after the Chester landed in New York, stating that he had been taken from the ship to the hospital, but was doing nicely. This was followed a day later by another from Lieut. J. W. Smith, that he was seriously sick in the Fort Hamilton hospital and for his father to come at once. A few hours later a message from the surgeon of the hospital announced his condition as dangerous. Mr. Briggs left for his bedside Saturday afternoon and has watched over him with a father's devotion ever since.

Shortly after the father's arrival at the hospital Forest appeared stronger and better and asked about the folks at home and gave hopes of his ultimate recovery. But it was probably only his father's presence that cheered him. In his weakened condition the trip home was more than he could stand. The members of Co. H who were permitted to see him before they left Porto Rico state that he was very weak, but was anxious to try to get home and would not consent to being left on the island.

The hospital doctors in charge of his case pronounced his trouble typhoid fever. A telegram to the Times from New York today at noon states that Mr. Briggs will start home with his body tomorrow. He will probably leave New York at 8 o'clock in the morning and will reach here at 4:50 Saturday morning.

Expressions of sympathy are heard on every hand today. There is no one but deeply regrets his death.

An Accident.

One of the High school pupils, Miss Lillie Raypole, fell as she was ascending the steps of the High school building yesterday and so badly sprained her neck that Dr. A. Titus was summoned. He said had the fall been much harder the result would have been a broken neck. Miss Raypole will not be able to attend school for the present and it is hoped the final result of the accident will not be serious.

Farm Implement Business Good.

W. M. Sollars, representing The Deering Harvester Co., of Chicago, is in the city for a conference with their local agent, H. A. Brown. Their season has just begun, but Mr. Sollars reports more machines sold in Scioto county for delivery in '99 than the entire sales amounted to for 1898. The farmers must be expecting Joe Leiter back in the wheat market.

APPRECIATED

Was the Daily Times, Received by Co. H While in the Field.

While Co. H was in the field The Times Publishing Co. mailed daily to its correspondent, the late lamented Elbert Patterson, twenty copies of the daily issue for distribution among the boys. It is a source of gratification to the Times to know that the papers were promptly received and appreciated by the company, as the following resolution, adopted by the company, shows:

"Ed. Times:—Through a committee of three, Company H desires to thank The Times Publishing Co. for the vast amount of daily papers sent us while in camp in the "states" and in Porto Rico, and the regularity with which they were received. May The Times continue to prosper and always remain the leading daily paper of Portsmouth, keeping Company H furnished with all the news.

SIXTY-NINTH YEAR

Mrs. Hannah A. White, of John street, celebrated her sixty-ninth birthday yesterday. She was born raised and has lived these sixty-nine years in the present homestead. This is a history that accompanies the lives of very few people. Mrs. White has good health and bids fair to live many years yet. She expects to die where she was born. The many friends of Mrs. White hope she may finish out the century.

TUMBLER PIGEONS

Shipped to Salt Lake City by the Schlichter Brothers.

Schlichter Bros. have just shipped several pairs of fine pigeons to Salt Lake City, Utah. These birds were performing tumblers. They cannot fly over six inches off the ground without tumbling backwards several times. They have several hundred of these birds in their loft, and it is a sight to watch them. They have shipped pigeons to all parts of the United States and Canada, and their birds have won many prizes in some of the leading poultry shows.

A Clever Salesman.

John Reilly left for a trip through the West in the interest of a large wall-paper concern in the East. He went to Chicago Tuesday and will begin his trip there. John is a great success as a salesman and can prove that "nothing fits like the paper on the wall."

To Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Prof. G. W. Moothart and wife left this morning for Cerro Gordo, Ill., where they will probably remain for several months visiting relatives. The trip is made for the benefit of Mrs. Moothart, who has been in poor health for some time.
